

Over 80 Years Strong

Since 1927 Methodist Health System has served as a beacon of health and hope to the people of North Texas. Guided by the founding principles of life, learning, and compassion, our family of health professionals is committed to providing your family with the best and brightest in medical care.

Part of Your Community

If it's happening in your community, Methodist Health System is a part of it. We are committed to improving the health and quality of life of the residents of the communities we serve.

OUR EMPLOYEES VOLUNTEERED thousands of hours in 2008 to community projects such as neighborhood cleanup initiatives, elementary school tutoring programs, and Meals on Wheels. We've renovated houses through the Hearts and Hammers program and helped combat teenage drunken driving through our partnership with MADD.

Our Community Service Programs Include:

Prostate Screening and Awareness Program, a free service that screens more men for prostate cancer than any other hospital-based program in the nation; Senior Access, serving area seniors through health and wellness programs; Congregational Health Ministry, which provides health resources to neighborhood churches; and Methodist Mobile Mammography, which, in partnership with the Susan G. Komen for the Cure, offers convenient screenings and mammograms.

Other Programs We Support Include:

Semana Binacional de Salud, which provides health screenings for the Hispanic community. We also support the Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, Texas Scholars, Dallas Area Crisis Response Team, National Night Out Against Crime, Project Graduation, and other vital programs.

Michael Mayo Named Methodist Dallas Medical Center President

A seasoned health care executive who began his career at John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth nearly 25 years ago, Mayo has demonstrated an innate talent for working with staff, physicians, and the community to identify areas for improvement and evolve best practices in both clinical and nonclinical areas of operations. "Michael Mayo is an exceptionally talented leader, who is well respected for his vision and stewardship," said Methodist Health System President and CEO Stephen L. Mansfield, PhD, FACHE. "I am confident that the focus and energy he brings to this key leadership role will serve Methodist Dallas and the greater community very well at this important time in our history."

$381.7 Million in Economic Impact

In fiscal 2008 Methodist Health System contributed more than $381.7 million to our local community, providing over $81.6 million in uncompensated charity care and $300.1 million in employee salaries and benefits. We employ 5,999 professionals, making us one of the largest employers in our area.

Thanks to our dedicated employees, the Dallas Business Journal named Methodist Health System one of the Metroplex's top ten "Best Places to Work 2008"—for the 5th year in a row!

Rehabilitation Hospital Opened January 2008

Methodist Rehabilitation Hospital[®] brings specialized care closer to home for patients recovering from stroke, brain injury, amputation, neurological conditions, orthopedic injuries, or joint replacement in Southwest Dallas County and the surrounding communities. The facility includes a therapeutic pool, therapy gym with the latest in rehabilitative equipment, therapy courtyard, and indoor and outdoor recreational areas as well as activities of daily living training suites.

Methodist Expands to McKinney

Scheduled to open in fall 2009, Methodist McKinney Hospital[®] will allow area physicians to expand medical services available to residents of Collin County and surrounding areas, providing a high-quality, patient-focused alternative for medical care. The hospital will open with 15 private patient rooms and will offer a wide array of physician specialties including primary care, orthopedics, general surgery, otolaryngology, neurosurgery, gynecology, and pain management.

Methodist Charlton—Reaching New Heights

Methodist Charlton Medical Center celebrated a milestone recently with the "topping out" ceremony for its new 8-story, 72-bed patient care tower, which is scheduled for completion in September 2009. The new patient tower is part of an extensive $116 million dollar expansion project for the 254-bed hospital located in Southwest Dallas County.

"The patient care tower is perfectly aligned with our mission to provide compassionate quality care," says Methodist Charlton President Zach Chandler. "It's all part of our ongoing investment in enhancing health care services and quality of life in the communities we serve."

Laura Bush Receives Folsom Award

For her compassionate leadership and selfless service, former First Lady Laura Bush was presented with the 2008 Robert S. Folsom Leadership Award from Methodist Health System. Recipients of the award are selected for their accomplishments in making a lasting, positive change in the Dallas community while inspiring others to follow in their paths. A dedicated promoter of women and children's health, literacy, and education, Mrs. Bush exemplifies the true intent and spirit of the award.

Award Winning Maternity Care

For the second year in a row, Methodist Charlton Medical Center has been ranked among the top 5% in the nation to receive the prestigious "5-Star rating and Maternity Care Excellence Award[™]" from HealthGrades.

Prostate Screening Reaches 50,000 Men

Methodist Health System's Prostate Screening Awareness Program (PSAP) hit a landmark number in 2008—screening the 50,000th man through the program that began eight years ago.
